HANCOCK PARK DISTRICT BOARD OF PARK COMMISSIONERS
Staff Report/Agenda Supplement
March 10, 2026

Special Presentation: Phyllis Schafer will be formally recognized as the 2025 Charlie Meadows Award winner. Hancock Park District Naturalist Michelle Rumschlag will present the plaque and talk about Phyllis' volunteer work for the Hancock Park District. In addition to the plaque, Phyllis' name will be added to a plaque displaying the names of all volunteers who have been recognized as the Charlie Meadows Award winner. The group plaque is on display at the Hancock Park District Administrative Offices.

"Charlie Meadows was appointed the first Hancock Park District Volunteer Coordinator in October of 1982. His contagious enthusiasm for everything he was involved with was at the heart of the community spirit he lived every day. Throughout his life, Charlie always had a smile and a solution with his high energy and caring attitude. The Charlie Meadows Volunteer Award is presented annually to the Hancock Park District Volunteer who exhibits these characteristics through volunteer service."

A request from USI Insurance Services to provide the Hancock Park District Board of Park Commissioners with a price indication and sample proposal for property and casualty insurance coverage: State law does not require public entities to advertise for bids or ask for informal cost estimates.
